

LOGO POLICY

1. The logo of the Environmental Consultants Association (WA) (the "Logo") is only available for use by a registered and financial member.
2. Use of the logo is a benefit of ECA membership. It may be displayed on stationery, correspondence, reports, and promotional material as appropriate.
3. Use of the Logo signifies membership of the ECA and hence strict observation of and adherence to the ECA's Code Of Conduct. It signifies that the member's product is professional and appropriate.
4. The appearance of the ECA logo on a document does not represent ownership or authorship by ECA WA or that the material has been approved, checked, endorsed by the ECA. Under no circumstances should the ECA logo be used represent the above. Furthermore, material on which the logo is used must be under the ownership and authorship of the member and clearly labelled as such.
5. The placement, size, colour and appearance of the logo should be appropriate.
6. The ECA reserves the right to insist on the member recalling the material which does not conform with the above.
